And we are going to remain the ‘YOUNGEST’...
TRANSFORMATION OF INDIAN SOCIAL FABRIC - DRIVEN BY YOUTH AND WOMEN CONSUMERS

Indian Women
- Modern yet traditional, key purchasing decision maker
- Increase in woman managers in the corporate world
- Beginning to shed inhibitions and enjoy beverage alcohol

Indian Youth
- Higher disposable incomes due to vastly enhanced job opportunities
- High on confidence, independent ideologies and very ambitious
- Upbeat, entrepreneurial and optimistic
- No longer bound by social constraints

Young India is redefining its value system - aspirational & spending more on lifestyle. The result is a ‘Complete Transformation’.

‘CONSUMER REVOLUTION’ WITH A FOCUS ON INCREASE IN CONSUMPTION

Today’s Indian Consumer
- Highly aspirational, willing to spend
- Spending more on discretionary items such as consumer durables, mobile phones, cars, homes and higher education
- ‘Lives for today’ - More than 10 million credit card holders in the country
- Increasing nuclear families, insular joint families - resulting in the urban upscale Indian behavior to work hard and party harder
- Redefining shopping experiences - International shopping formats
- Globetrotting Indians/ rich upper class - Living it up in style!

COFFEE CONSUMPTION IN INDIA
TRENDS AND ATTITUDES
Coffee consumption in India has shown an annual average growth of about 2% between 1951 to 2000 (18,400 tonnes in 1951 to 94,400 tonnes during 2008).

The consumption growth is much faster in recent years showing an annual average growth of about 6% between 2000 to 2008.

Per capita consumption of regular coffee consumers (habitual drinkers) is two cups per day i.e. 10 to 12 gms per day.

However, overall per capita consumption of coffee at 82 grams which is still low.

Coffee has changed from being a traditional beverage consumed mainly in South India, to a beverage with a national presence, consumed in several forms and retail formats.

SHARE OF THROAT

Ratio of the volume of that beverage consumed to the volume of all beverages consumed yesterday (excluding water).

- Tea 54%
- Plain milk 17%
- Coffee 13% (filter + instant)

- During 2003, this Ratio for tea (46%), Plain milk (13%) and coffee (10%).
- This can be attributed to the increase in total volume of beverage consumed (increased in Yesterday consumption).
