International Coffee Council
124th Session
25 to 29 March 2019
Nairobi, Kenya

International Coffee Agreement 2007
Membership as at 1 March 2019

Background

1. The attached document contains a report on membership of the International Coffee Agreement (ICA) 2007.
2. The International Coffee Organization urges all Governments that have yet to complete membership formalities for the 2007 Agreement to make every effort to accelerate the procedures required.

Action

3. The Council is requested to consider this report.

INTERNATIONAL COFFEE AGREEMENT 2007 MEMBERSHIP AS AT 1 MARCH 2019

Background

1. The ICA 2007 was adopted by the International Coffee Council on 28 September 2007 through Resolution 431. On 25 January 2008, the Council designated the International Coffee Organization (ICO) as the Depositary for the Agreement and it opened for signature at the ICO headquarters in London on 1 February 2008 until 31 August 2008, and for deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval until 30 September 2008. The period for signature was subsequently extended until 28 September 2011 (see Resolutions 439 and 441 and 445) and the period for deposit of instruments was also extended by the Council until 30 September 2019¹.

Status of the 2007 Agreement

2. The ICA 2007 entered into force definitively on 2 February 2011 in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of Article 42 of the ICA 2007.

3. As at 1 March 2019, 44 exporting Members and 6 importing Members have completed membership procedures (see Annex I). The Annex shows the status of membership under the ICA 2007. Governments are listed in the following five categories:

Section A: Members of the 2007 Agreement

Section B: Members of the ICA 2001 which have signed the ICA 2007 but not completed the required procedures

Section C: Members of the ICA 2001 which have not signed the ICA 2007

Section D: Countries which have withdrawn from the ICA 2007

Section E: Countries invited as observers to attend the 98th Session of the Council at which the ICA 2007 was adopted.

Deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval

4. Under the provisions of Resolution 464, signatory Governments have until 30 September 2019 to deposit instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession. Procedures for membership are set out in document ED-2033/08 Rev. 14, together with a model instrument. Following the expiry of the deadline for signature on 28 September 2011, accession is the only option for membership open to non-signatory Governments (see paragraph 6 below).

¹ See also Resolutions 440, 442, 446, 448, 449, 452, 454, 456, 458, 461 and 464.

Notification of provisional application

5. Under the provisions of Article 41 (Provisional application), a signatory Government which intends to ratify, accept or approve the 2007 Agreement may, at any time, notify the Depository that it will apply the Agreement provisionally in accordance with its legal procedures.

Accession

6. Accession is generally used by States wishing to express their consent to be bound by a treaty where the deadline for signature has passed. Article 43 (Accession) provides that the Government of any State member of the United Nations or of any of its specialized agencies or any intergovernmental organization described in paragraph (3) of Article 4 may accede to the 2007 Agreement in accordance with procedures which shall be established by the Council. At its 106th Session, the Council approved Resolution 447 establishing procedures for accession, in accordance with Article 43 of the 2007 Agreement. The deadline for deposit of instruments of accession is currently 30 September 2019. Information about procedures for accession is contained in document ED-2033/08 Rev. 14, together with a model instrument.

Members of the ICA 2001 which have not yet completed procedures for the ICA 2007

7. Countries which have not yet completed membership procedures will only be required to pay contributions to the Administrative Budget in 2018/19 from the date they become Members². The Executive Director has written to the designated persons for countries listed in Sections B and C of Annex I to remind them of the need to complete membership procedures as soon as possible.

Participation at meetings and credentials

8. As has been the procedure since the entry into force of the 2007 Agreement, countries which were Members under the 2001 Agreement but have not yet completed procedures for the ICA 2007 may continue to attend meetings and receive ICO documents, pending the formal completion of membership procedures. These countries have been long-standing Members of previous Agreements, and this practice was followed under the ICA 1994 and the ICA 2001. Although these countries may be invited to take their seats in the Council, they would not be eligible to participate in the formal decision-making process.

² Paragraph (3) of Article 20 provides that the initial contribution of any Member joining the ICO after the entry into force of the 2007 Agreement shall be assessed by the Council on the basis of the number of votes to be held by it and the period remaining in the current financial year.

9. In the case of the report on credentials, these countries will continue to be grouped as countries which have not yet completed the formal procedures for membership of the ICA 2007, but were Members under the ICA 2001 and have sent representatives to this Session. A similar procedure was followed in the case of Council Sessions held under the ICA 2001³.
