If the establishment of the Pre-Selection Committee is necessary, its report and recommendation shall be distributed to Members no later than [September 2021].

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE PRE-SELECTION COMMITTEE

During its 45th meeting, held on 8 and 12 April 2021, the Finance and Administration Committee conducted an extensive debate on the criteria for the selection and appointment of a new Executive Director. The following points remain outstanding regarding the establishment of a Pre-Selection Committee to review the list of candidates applying for the position of Executive Director of the ICO:

1) Establishment of the Pre-Selection Committee
   - The Council should decide whether a Pre-Selection Committee should be constituted.
   - A Pre-Selection Committee is necessary to reduce the burden of work of the Council.
   - A Pre-Selection Committee is unnecessary because Council should be prepared to evaluate all candidates.

2) Composition of the Pre-Selection Committee
   - Open to all interested Members [who have not endorsed a candidate].
   - Open to a small number of Members [who have not endorsed a candidate].

3) Shortlist of recommended candidates to Council
   - The Pre-Selection Committee should propose a shortlist of five candidates.
   - The Pre-Selection Committee should propose a shortlist of ten candidates, unless the number of candidates is lower than ten.
   - The Pre-Selection Committee should propose two shortlists: one of ten applicants and another shortlist of five. The Council will decide on which shortlist will be invited to make presentations.

4) Terms of Reference of the Pre-Selection Committee
   - If established, the Pre-Selection Committee should have its own terms of reference, including decision-making procedures, approved by the Council.
